Apologies: Kay Burnie

Minutes from the last Meeting: Moved: Dianne Seconded: Bernie

Matters arising from the minutes:

Enviro Hub renting of premises went well

Treasurer's Report:

Last tournament made a profit of $229.34 and the raffle made $219.35

Moved: Michele Seconded: Teri

General Business:

Teri to speak to the building manager re Bernie's plan for holding the downstairs door back

Sub committee for end of year gifts: Dianne, Janice and Michele

Garage doors. Julie got a quote of $6600 but it was agreed that it is not really necessary

Wednesday Night/Thursday. It will be added to the notices to be aware of etiquette and not discuss the previous hand when playing the next pair/table

Christmas party for 2027 will be 27 November

Richard has obtained Mount Medical Centre as a new sponsor. We still need a few more sponsors for next year.

Holiday Bridge will start on 4th January on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. No partner required for Monday and Thursday sessions as we will have a standby

Bernie to canvas Wednesday players to see if the middle page of the programme book is necessary.

Thursday teams are working well.

Paul Nielsen event will be moved to Monday nights as an aggregate competition for Junior and Novice players.

Security cameras. Teri had a quote for $2450. Still waiting for more quotes and no decision made yet.

Sanitary bin in ladies' toilets. Not necessary as there is one in the toilet on the landing.

We need two more trophies for Intermediate Pairs and Intermediate Singles.
